Albany Bowl

Perhaps the Holiday season was responsible for the slight drop in many of our big guns' averages as scoring was definitely below normal the past month.

However, Noah Berger was certainly an exception to the rule as he posted consecutive marks of 236/679, 279/672, 247/706 & 279/736 in the Bay Alarm Classic, pushing his average up to a league/leading 226.

Top single series in the Classic was a 279/738 by Ralph Willis while Chris Rampoldi had a 247/728, Joel Sheehan 246/725 and Ron Brockoff 278/722.

Other league highs included a 255/700 by Noel Franklin in the Reno Invitational, Oliver Williams 279/712 in the Thursday Sleepers, Ronald Fujita 247/694 in the Junior / Adult, and Chris Salinas 254/731, Deo Goodwin 247/694 & Darren Long 246/694 in the Friday Night Live.

Tamara Lemons fired a 220/652 plus a 248/603 and Kathy Watson had 226/636 & 226/594 in the Classic, while other distaff highs were Una Thornton 231/614, Verdie Williams 213/586, Dianna Dai 200/576 and Charlotte Caldwell 214/568.

Senior league men were led by Howard Jeffries 234/617 & 233/601, Curtis Thompson 234/611 & 245/607, Sak Takahashi 215/615 and Locke Yow 208/606, while senior distaffer Amalia Ross hit a fine 225/603, Vicki Jobe 217/565 & Lydia Taylor 204/565.

You can be assured our next report will contain many more & much higher scores.
